INTRODUCTION.

---

THERE is no saving power in the mere letter of the word, even though it be the word of God. It is the Spirit that giveth life.

We should not, however, despise the letter. It is the body; and the body is of some worth as a medium for the soul.

He who knows most of the word of God, though it be with but an intellectual knowledge, will be that much richer when the Holy Spirit of God touches the dry bones and bids them live. The dry bones in the "Valley of Vision" were better than so many stones, when the time came for the miracle of resurrection.

We cannot give to our children too much Bible knowledge. They cannot know too much Bible history, nor too much Bible geography, nor be too well able to explain the obscure passages, nor too familiar with the true solution of the common difficulties which all Bible students sooner or later encounter, and which they should be able to explain.

CURIOSITIES OF THE BIBLE.

In view of this need, I do most sincerely thank the industrious and ingenious "New York Sunday-School Superintendent," who has compiled the valuable little manual of biblical curiosities now presented to the public.

Let it be used wisely. Let the circle of friends, old and young, who may gather about table or fireside to spend an hour or an evening in the profitable recreation which it may furnish—let them all remember that cheerfulness and generous rivalry are allowable here, but that irreverence and impatience, out of place always and everywhere, are especially inappropriate, while we hold in our hands the most holy word of God, or busy ourselves with the truths which are to be found in it.

May the students of the "Curiosities of the Bible" become skilled in the interpretation of that Divine Book, and, enjoying its spiritual illumination, may they prove its divinity by pure and unselfish lives.

PREFACE.

This collection of treasures, new and old, is the outgrowth of eighteen years experience in devising methods and incentives to interest children and those of older growth in bible study ; and thus aid them in fulfilling the injunction—"search the scriptures."

It has been a part of every Sunday's programme in our school, for the past eight years, to propose a bible question or exercise to be answered the following Sunday upon cards distributed by the secretary and collected at the call of the bell ; the correct and incorrect answers being announced from the desk, with appropriate comments and explanations.

By this method, if an incorrect answer was given, the unsuccessful seeker after truth was not exposed to ridicule in consequence of failure, but was ready for the next proposition with as much zeal as at the outset.

Such questions only were given as were founded upon the bible and answered in it, and such as would excite in the mind of bible readers and seekers after truth a curiosity to know how, when, where, and under what circumstances they occurred.

To secure these, a vast range of bible literature has been searched. Among the most prominent aids may be mentioned the very excellent London periodicals, "The Sunday at Home," "The Quiver," and "Band of Hope Review." My associates—officers, teachers, and scholars—have jointly interested themselves with me in solving many of the intricate problems herein contained.

A large number of these are prize questions and puzzles, which have elicited a wide correspondence, and the deep interest manifested in them gives the assurance that the benefit derived from these exercises can never be estimated.

In verification of this statement, selections are given from the testimony of a large number who, in their researches, have not only been stimulated by the hope of winning an earthly reward, but have been led to deeper thought and richer experience, which of itself is a matchless prize.

EXTRACTS FROM LETTERS.—“I cannot tell you how pleasant and happy have been the hours spent in studying the bible for this purpose. Time and trouble have been repaid with interest in the enlargement of biblical knowledge, and the increase of love for the bible.”

“I have derived lifelong benefit from the close communion with the book of books and the author of it, finding new beauties in the scriptures, and obtaining a priceless treasure which neither the world nor time can take away.”

“I can thankfully say, reading the bible for these answers has shown me the truth in a way I never saw before.”

“I read the entire book of psalms through five times for one answer.”

This volume has a two-fold mission: to increase our knowledge of all biblical facts, and beget intensity in all hearts a greater love for the Book of Life. That the number of those who may be thus benefitted may become legion is the hope of the compiler.

FAMILIAR QUOTATIONS

OF THE

Bible.

[Key page 75.]

The common use of many passages of Scripture make it desirable that all should know from whence they came, and under what circumstances they were originally written or uttered. A few of the more familiar quotations are annexed as an exercise in “Searching the Scriptures.”

1. Where will you find the common phrase—“To make a man an offender for a word?”

2. Where the wise reminder—“The fear of man bringeth a snare?”

3. Where the familiar metaphor—“An arm of flesh?”

4. Where the solemn warning—“Be sure your sin will find you out?”

5. Where the humane injunction—“A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast?”

6. Where is Jehovah described as, “Glorious in holiness, fearful in praise, doing wonders?”

7. Where is it said—“Them that honor Me I will honor; and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed?”

8. Where is there first found the command to “love and serve the Lord with all the heart and with all the soul?”

9. Where the command to “love the stranger?”

10. Where to “love thy neighbor as thyself?”

11. Showing the debasing effects of an atheistic spirit, “Let us eat and drink for to-morrow we shall die?”

12. Showing the hurrying tendency of a long course of sin, “Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots?”

13. Showing the danger of trifling with conviction and warning, "He that being often reprov'd hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy."

14. "Nor by might nor by power, but by My Spirit, saith the Lord," showing use of means but dependence only on God?

15. "Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil," a most necessary warning, for, alas! how many do "custom and example" lead "to swerve from the truth."

16. "Every imagination of the thoughts of mans heart is only evil continually." A strong statement; but showing the need of Divine grace and discipline (Jer. xvii. 9, 10).

17. "Seekest thou great things for thyself, seek them not."

18. "He that ruleth his spirit is greater than he that taketh a city."

19. "Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?"

20. "Shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil?"

21. "Their strength is to sit still. In quietness and in confidence shall be your strength."

22. "How can man be just before God? (since) he cannot answer Him one of a thousand."

23. "And thine ears shall hear a voice behind thee saying, This is the way, walk ye in it."

24. "We are but of yesterday, and know nothing."

25. "The righteous shall hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands shall be stronger and stronger."

26. Where is a king spoken of as "The breath of our nostrils," applied sometimes since in flattery to modern monarchs?

27. Who first employed that powerful simile, now become proverbial, "Like a wild bull in a net?"

28. Christ on two occasions quoted the words, "I will have mercy, and not sacrifice." Where are they to be found in the Old Testament?

29. Who said, "No doubt but ye are the people, and wisdom shall die with you?"

30. Where is to be found the declaration, "Man looketh at the outward appearance, but God looketh at the heart?"

SCRIPTURE ENIGMAS.

ANAGRAMS, ACROSTICS AND PUZZLES.

[Key Page 79.]

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 1.

Five hundred begins it; five hundred ends it;
And five in the middle is seen;
The first of all letters, the first of all numbers,
Have taken their stations between;
And if you correctly this medley can spell,
The name of an ancient king then it will tell.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 2.

I end as I began,
The weal and woe of man;
Yet do not harshly blame,
I bear my mother's name.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 3.

My centre is nothing;
My first is my last;
And when the long ages
Are over and past,
Then vengeance divine
Shall devour me and mine.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 4.

Four heads have I, but body none,
And without any legs I run.
'Midst bliss supreme my lot was cast,
And joys that could not be surpassed.
Yet these delights did I forsake,
And far away my course I take;
Yet, while I wander far or nigh,
Still ever in my bed I lie.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 5.

Of nature hard, and yet of purpose soft,
The livelong night it bore its lord aloft;
More vast by far than common mortals know,
And fitted well to lay the oppressor low.
Now lowlier still the lord lies in the grave,
While for a trophy conquerors kept the slave.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 6.

By changing seasons gently nursed,
From out of a tender bud it burst,
And in a wood it flourished first.

Alas! not long; the forest glade,
Resigns its trust; behind it fade
Its sylvan home and woodland shade.

Death came; but though men called it dead,
A second diverse life it led—
A thing of wonder and of dread.

Then the old life resumed its power,
And, in a dark and anxious hour,
Sweet blooms arose, and fruit and flower.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 7.

In the water, in the air, and in the busy brain,
 Busy once, but nevermore to hate or love again;
 One of five, all like itself, in deadly deed united,
 And yet delivering those in whom the Lord of Hosts delighted.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 8.

Take from my whole my first away,
 Behold it then our direst day,
     Since Time his course began.
 Restore again my several part,
 My whole brings peace to careworn hearts,
     And rest to weary man.

And end at last his time of waiting grief.

Take firsts and finals, and a text is made,
Which in temptation's hour may prove an aid.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMAS, No. 29.

Afar they watch my whole arise,
Its summit seems to touch the skies ;
“ When all is done,” the crowds exclaim,
“ Then shall we make ourselves a name ! ”

Remove a letter, and behold !
A shepherd issue from his fold,
With blood devoutly draws he nigh,
Himself, alas ! how soon to die.

Remove a letter still, and now
Before an idol-god they bow ;
To wood and stone is worship paid,
And men adore what men have made.

Remove a letter yet once more,
We see an altar stained with gore ;
And he who built it named it thus,
To teach a precious truth to us.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 30.

And feeds all those that on His grace depend?
13. A type of that which makes all sorrows light,
And throws a beam across the darkest night?
14. An emblem of a city placed on high
Which dared Almighty power to defy?

In the initials of these types we read
Not to depend on man in time of need ;
But put our trust in God's Almighty power,
Who help will give for every trying hour.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 33.

9. Name the third mount to whose high top
King Balak, Balaam led.
10. Give for a parable a name
In Bible pages read.
11. Reverse the name where gold was found—
A celebrated place ;
12. And give the mighty ancestor
Of Edom's hardy race.

When you the firsts and finals find,
A sentence you may frame,
A promise made by Christ on earth
Which we in heaven may claim.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 36.

Curiously hinged and jointed
 To its fellow hangs my first ;
 To preserve man's life appointed,
 When the ground, through sin, was cursed ;
 Yet it never
 Fails to deal destruction round,
 To whatever
 May within its reach be found.

With substantial fabrication
 Is my unseen second blest ;
 Made a wondrous habitation,
 For a still more wondrous guest :
 Framed to cherish
 Force of arm—the warrior's trust ;
 Doomed to perish—
 Earth to earth, and dust to dust !

From a feeble creature taken,
 Once my whole appeared in sight ;
 And by strength vindictive shaken,
 Slew a thousand in the fight ;
 'Twas selected
 To rebuke the Gentiles' pride ;
 Soon rejected,
 Like a weapon cast aside.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 37.

(Showing a possession lost for us by the first Adam; regained for us by the second Adam.)

1. The name of one of the first seven deacons.
2. A man who, as a king, offered willingly land and goods to build an altar, and to offer sacrifice to God.
3. A family which earned the approbation and reward from God by their obedience to the command of their ancestor.

4. A maiden given to wife as a reward for capturing a city; and who sought and obtained, of her father, land with springs of water. (N.B.—The account of this is given twice over in the Bible ; give reference to both passages.)

5. The omitted tribe in the account, in the Revelation, of the sealing of the hundred and forty-four thousand.

6. The father of that prophet of the Lord who dared speak unpalatable truth to the wicked king to whom the rest of the prophets had spoken palatable falsehood.

7. A convert called by St. Paul “the first fruits of Achaia,” and whose household that apostle baptized.

8. That prophet whose visions, in the Old Testament, are often much akin to those of St. John the Divine in the New.

The initials of the above will give the answer.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 38

From the New Testament alone,
Resolves these questions truly ;
The answers two acrostics make,
When ranged in order duly.

1. The brook that Jesus had to cross,
The traitor's band to meet?
2. The symbol of the prayers of saints,
Acceptable and sweet?
3. When Mary saw the Master risen,
Her cry of recognition?
4. The fourth of seven—the daily care
Of widows was their mission?
5. He who, in recklessness profane,
His birthright blessing sold?
6. And he who vexed his righteous soul
With Sodom's crimes of old?

7. The band wherein a Roman served,
With right devout behavior ?
8. And he, at Rome, whom Paul salutes,
“ Our helper ” in the Saviour ?
9. And lastly, he, progenitor
Of Christ’s reputed father,
Whose name the sixth in upward rank,
From Joseph’s line we gather ?

The initials and the finals take
From every term selected,
Except “ the symbol of the prayers,”
And this must be bisected.

See the first Gentile Christian’s name,
Framed from the signs initial ;
And in the finals upward read,
Behold his rank official.

May we, like him, by Peter taught,
Renounce our Gentile pride,
And by the Spirit from above
Our hearts be purified !

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 39.

From the tangled thicket bounding,
Roars my first ;
Through the wild his voice, resounding,
Hath dispersed
All the tribes that prowl and prey
In the night :
From his path they flee away
With affright.

O’er the path my second gliding
Bites the heels ;
In the treacherous wine-cup hiding,
Stings and kills.

But the Christ, creation's Head,
     David's Root,
 Shall my first and second tread
     Under foot!

Look! my third has made its dwelling
     Underground ;
 And its mimic mountains swelling,
     Rise around :
 Image of the carnal mind,
     Child of earth,
 'Tis by nature dark and blind
     From its birth.

So my fourth, with scanty vision
     Of the light,
 Flitting, finds its whole provision
     In the night.
 To my third and fourth, 'tis told,
     Man shall cast
 All their gods of sordid gold,
     At the last.

Who the four initials borrows,
     Shall display
 One, who all our sins and sorrows
     Bore away :
 Like this creature—though Divine—
     He became,
 And his name, in type and sign,
     Is the same.

SCRIPTURAL ENIGMA, No. 40.

What godly priest on Judah's throne his wife's young nephew placed?
 What land unto Urijah gave a shelter, when disgraced?
 Who was the youngest son of him who earned a curse foretold?

What relation was Paul to one who told of plotters bold?
 Who mourned when one for Israel's good help from a king received?
 What was it last poured out on them for whom our Saviour grieved?
 What prophet of the Lord most high did Syrian plots defeat?
 What brother in the Lord did Paul for one estranged entreat?
 What bishop of an eastern church had learned God's holy truth,
 While yet a child, and served the Lord e'en from his early youth?
 If you have answered this aright, the initial letters prove
 Our blessed Saviour's sympathy, his tenderness and love;
 And then the final letters read, for these will let you know
 A place where Christ with tears of love His sympathy did show.

SCRIPTURAL ENIGMA, No. 41.

From the New Testament these questions solve,
 And thus these names evolve:

1. Who was it oft-times trembled while he heard
 A Roman prisoner's word?
2. What Jew from Egypt did at Corinth preach
 With strong, persuasive speech?
3. Who, by presentiment of faith possessed,
 His twin-born children bless'd?
4. Who, with a life by earliest faith begun,
 Was call'd the apostle's son?
5. Who, by her daughter's "light fantastic" tread
 Obtained a prophet's head?
6. Whose name stands second in th' ascending tree
 Of Jesu's pedigree?
7. What slave was to his injured master sent
 By Paul, a penitent?

8. Who was that Jewess, whose experienced speech
Did a great teacher teach ?
9. Who was his mother who, in early youth,
Believed and preached the truth ?
10. Who was the first of all the Gentile race
To learn the Saviour's grace ?
11. Who—though not first—all Asia led astray,
And turned from Paul away ?
12. Who, by one lie, called forth th' apostle's power
And perished the same hour ?
13. Who heard the voice of Peter at the gate,
And made the apostle wait ?
14. What epithet both marks a traitor's shame,
And clears his namesake's fame ?
15. Who for St. Paul his longest letter penned,
And kind salute did send ?
16. What title, in three vowels, doth express
The Saviour's faithfulness ?

Now from each term evolved th' initial take,
And an acrostic make.

Three sovereign graces that in Christians dwell,
The several letters spell.

The first, without saving power, looks back to see
The Saviour's agony.

The next, with steadfast eye, looks upward still
To heavenly Zion's hill.

The last, the greatest, labors to be blest
In heaven's eternal rest.

The first completed, and the next made sure,
The third shall still endure.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 42.

1. The tribe to which Korah belonged?
2. The son of Ruth?
3. That by which the sheep know the shepherd?
4. David's eldest brother?
5. The man whom Philip brought to Christ?
6. The father of Ahab?
7. The birthplace of St. Paul?
8. The man who "boasted himself to be somebody?"
9. The city given by Joshua to Caleb?
10. The prophet who said "I am not better than my fathers?"
11. That which Pharaoh's daughter promised to Jochabed?
12. The man who was "blessed because of the Ark of God?"
13. The place where Elkanah lived?
14. That of which Jacob made pottage?
15. The man who was "greatly beloved?"

The initials form a precept much needed in this world.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 43.

'Tis night—my first runs out, another comes,
 Another and another, ere the morn
     Wakes up a slumbering world
     And lights the toils of men.

'Tis day—my second runs his weary round,
 And groans in pain, or travails with his task,
     Or sits enthroned in pride,
     Or in the dungeon pines.

'Tis night again—my whole with lofty eye,
 Looks out beneath him on a slumbering world,
     The dim horizon scans,
     And kens the coming foe.

Simile.

The Christian's life is like the first ; and he Should like the second quit himself, be strong,
Be wise ; and, like the whole,
Look for his coming Lord.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA. No. 44.

In the initials placed aright,
Appears that spot of memory sweet,
Where He who dwelt as man on earth,
Loved with his followers to meet.

1. My wicked wiles could not avail
God's servant to dismay.
2. In bitterness of soul I knelt,
Before the Lord to pray.
3. Beside a river's bank I stood,
And viewed a wondrous sight.
4. To me a crown of gold was given,
And robes of blue and white.
5. In time of danger I concealed
God's prophets in a cave.
6. In vain to Egypt did I fly,
My threatened life to save.
7. With saddened heart I left the land,
Where those I loved were laid.
8. In Pekah King of Israel's days,
I did his land invade.
9. A city I must first besiege,
Ere I my wife could win.
10. I trembled at my prisoner's words,
Yet would not leave my sin.

11. My giant strength became as nought
Opposed to God's great might.
12. My tribe was chosen by the Lord,
To serve Him day and night.
13. As musing in the field I walked,
I saw my bride draw near.
14. I would not, at my lord's command,
Before his court appear.
15. My harsh reproofs but served to add
Unto my friend's great woe.
16. I perished on the battle-field,
But not by sword or foe,
My own right hand the weapon held,
Which made my life-blood flow.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 45.

The prophet who "loved the wages of unrighteousness."

The native land of Ishmael's wife.

The man who would not part with the inheritance of his fathers.

The tenth part of an ephah.

The city to which Barnabas went to seek Saul.

The number of years that Moses sojourned in Midian.

The saint who, "being dead, yet speaketh."

The medium of communication between Joseph and his brethren.

St. Paul's "own son in the faith."

The father of King Manasseh.

Isaac's brother-in-law.

The prophet visited on his death-bed by King Joash.

The city where Omri was buried.

The Benjamite who cursed David.

These initials make a charge of our Saviour to His disciples.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 46.

Whose faith and courage saved her people's life ?
 Who won a battle trusting in the Lord ?
 Who gained a sharp rebuke for jealous strife ?
 Who perished by a traitor's cruel sword ?
 Who checked his rage to prove a prophet's word ?

The initial letters take—they form his name
 Who did his foe's unwilling praise proclaim ;
 Then take the finals, and they give the same.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA. No. 47.

1. A type of our Lord ; one who entered the land of Egypt, and the house of bondage, and there saved his people.

2. One who preferred a present and temporal benefit, to that which was future and eternal, and repented, when too late.

3. The name of a King of Israel ; also of one who, from a persecutor, became an apostle.

4. One who put out a rash hand, unauthorized by God, to steady the ark, which he thought to be in danger, and received not praise, but punishment from God.

5. The name of that church of whose angel (or bishop) was said, “ Thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.”

The first letters of these make up the sweetest human name in the world.

“ It makes the wounded spirit whole
 It calms the troubled breast ;
 'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
 And to the weary rest.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 48.

What is Christian worship?—
 You shall quickly know,
 When you solve the queries

Name the fifth disciple,
 Of Bethsaida he,
 Jesus found, and called him,
 Saying, “ Follow me ! ”

How shall we take warning ?
 Learning from Lot's wife,
 Who, though saved from Sodom,
 Turned, and lost her life !

With the traitor's silver,
 When this field was bought,
 There the doom he suffered,
 Of the deeds he wrought.

Paul once found at Corinth,
 Lately come from—whence ?
 Two good souls, when Cæsar
 Drove all Jews from thence.

Early in the morning,
 With the Marys came
 One, to look for Jesus ;
 Mark recites her name.

Jacob's father's father—
 Tell his worthy name :
 In the line of David
 You shall find the same.

First th' initial letters,
 Next the finals take ;
 Then, with holy incense
 These sweet offerings make :

This to tell God's mercies,
That to seek his face,
 Through the blood of sprinkling,
 At the throne of grace.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 49.

A faithful martyr's honored name,
 A prophet-judge's dwelling-place,
 A warrior who to David came,
 A priest who perished in disgrace,
 A prophet's home, a mountain land :

The initial letters spell,
 Reverse their order as they stand,
 A mournful name they tell,
 Which one, oppressed with deepest woes,
 In bitterness of spirit chose.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 50.

My first is known in every Christian clime,
 The fatal instrument of deadly crime.
 Abhorred, beloved, accursed, and yet most blest,
 A path of trouble to a land of rest.

For the initial letter substitute
 The next in alphabetic order found,
 And all most valued, held in best repute,
 In this vain world most worshipped or renowned,
 Weighed with my first, so painful, yet so dear
 To each true heart, my second will appear.

The two first letters of this word remove,
 And place instead the initial of her name
 Who cheered God's saints with words and deeds of love.
 Embraced my first, and gloried in the shame.

The word thus formed is used by one most blest,
That great apostle whom she made her guest,
To tell what all the world's wealth, learning, fame,
When he beheld my first, to him became.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 51.

In many a bosom fondly nursed,
A fiery serpent is my first ;
When Jesus came for us to die,
He crushed this deadly enemy.
My second is a city's name,
Where Israel's host was put to shame,
Because my first still unrevealed,
Was lurking in their camp concealed.
Upon my whole, pronounced by heaven,
The knowledge of my first was given.
The chosen people gathered round,
And trembled at the dreadful sound.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 52.

Earth revolves, and lo ! I come,
    Out of darkness springing ;
Men and beasts their task resume,
    Birds their carols singing ;
Glad my smiling face to see,
Earth wakes up to welcome me.

Earth revolves, and, like again,
    Out of darkness beaming,
Shine I in Night's diadem,
    On the wavelets gleaming ;
And my radiance dies away,
Only in returning day.

Earth revolves, and now 'tis mine,
     Out of darkness glancing,
 To announce the night's decline,
     And the day's advancing;
 And my hopeful brightness, so,
 Doth the Saviour's coming show.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 53.

From all the names in Scripture,
     Of just six letters framed,
 Find hers who, for her beauty,
     Was far and justly famed;
 'Tis true her lot was lowly,
     Yet, though her birth was mean,
 She, from a captive maiden,
     Became a mighty queen.

Transpose the same six letters,
     And now his name we find,
 Whose meditated treason
     Was timely brought to mind;
 And Providence so ordered,
     That a great king was taught
 To magnify the humble,
     And bring the proud to nought.

Five of the six exhibit
     A mount on Dan bestow'd,
 Where still, though put to tribute,
     The Amorites abode.

Five show what creatures cover
     Th' unbrageous forest-lands,
 And soon—the prophet tells us—
     They all shall clap their hands.

Five more denote the number
Of Anak's sons of old
(Not one, nor two, nor many),
Whose several names are told.

Five changed show what, in vision,
From heaven to Peter came,
Filled with all living creatures,
That he might eat the same.

Four of the same selected,
Describe that other seed
Instead of him—the victim
Of man's first murderous deed.

Four other letters chosen
Will Samuel's office show,
What time some urgent matter
A young man sought to know.

Four name that Hebrew letter
That stands the last but two :
The longest psalm, in portions,
Will prove the answer true.

Four make the sweetest offer
The weary soul can hear ;
Come, and receive it freely,
Who yoke or burden bear

And four denote the person
Who with " good comfort " heard,
When to the poor blind beggar
They told the Saviour's word ;
And the same voice of comfort
To every conscience speaks,
When Jesus, by his gospel,
Each poor blind sinner seeks.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 54.

Faith shall be swallowed up in sight,
 Hope in fulfilment end,
 When on our twilight life the light
 Of heaven shall descend.

A sister-grace to these, more great,
 Shall brighten when they wane ;
 O let us more and more to this,
 Even in this life, attain !

The initials of the following will give the name of this most excellent grace :

1. The grandmother of Timothy.
2. The good servant of a wicked king, who kept one hundred prophets of the Lord from the vengeance of the queen.
3. A queen who resisted her husband's command, and was deposed.
4. A good man, but a bad father.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 55.

The father of the first artificer in brass and iron.

The man who said, " I thy servant fear the Lord from my youth."

The wise man's estimate of earthly pleasure.

The place where David slew Goliath.

Rehoboam's successor.

The people who stole the oxen of Job.

Herod's chamberlain.

The city where Jehu was anointed king.

The kingdom of Chedorlaomer.

Paul's amanuensis when he wrote the Epistle to the Romans.

The mother of Adonijah.

The wife of Mahlon.

The name of the altar that was built by the children of Reuben and Gad.

The younger son of Bilhah.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 56.

My first enjoins a watchful care,
To see and shun each lurking snare,
With earnest and unceasing prayer.

My second speaks a kingdom mine,
Where life and peace and joy divine
In uncorrupted glory shine.

My third would contradict my first,
'Tis watchful earnestness reversed,
By careless, prayerless folly nursed.

Faith is my fourth, of things not seen
While on the word of truth we lean,
Though clouds and darkness intervene.

These several subjects find in turn,
And as their primal signs you learn,
My whole in figure you discern.

This type of Jesus, and His saints
Their living, fruitful union paints,
And patient love that never faints.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 57.

THREEFOLD ACROSTIC.

1. R-uin and wrath, and mortal gloom,
2. B-y nature's fall and righteous doom,
3. A-ll drive the sinner to the tomb.

N-one can escape the just reward,
Y-et the long-suffering of the Lord
E-ndures the acts of men abhorred.

D-eath and the grave wide open lie,
D-read and destruction hover nigh,
P-erdiction waits, which none can fly.

B-ut lo! the gospel brings to light
 U-nlooked-for help in Nature's night,
 E-den and life restored to sight.

M-ercy receives the dreadful stroke,
 Y-ea, justice doth the doom revoke,
 R-emoves the curse, and breaks the yoke.

C-hrist in our flesh the price hath paid,
 P-eace through His precious blood is made,
 P-ardon and life for man displayed.

T-here, on the shameful cross he bled,
 O-ffered to judgment in our stead,
 H-umbled, and numbered with the dead!

W-ith hell he fought and won the day,
 I-n dying took death's sting away,
 A-nd rose triumphant from the fray!

O-to obtain what Christ hath won!
 E-njoy the grace on earth begun!
 S-o life shall crown what Love hath done.

N-ow may we trust the sure record,
 R-eceive what grace and power award,—
 E-eternal glory with the Lord!

The initials in due order spun,
 From every verse selecting one,
 Three times acrostically done,
 Will show the work of God's dear Son ;
 His suffering course on earth begun,
 And His eternal kingdom won.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 58.

The letters in the following words, when re-arranged, form the name of a false god, to whom human sacrifices were offered :—

1. A man noted for wisdom.
2. An unclean beast.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 59.

In every clime, through every age,
 In history's eventful page.
 My first will always rise to view,
 And wakes our love and hatred too.
 My second and my third will each
 Express the self-same part of speech,
 And, though two interjections brief,
 May paint a world of joy or grief.
 My whole most surely was my first;
 But far more brave and firm in faith,
 His wife a mighty patriot nursed,
 Who nobly died a hero's death.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 60.

In finals and initials may be found
 The names of two, for beauty both renowned;
 The one, her days 'mid courtly splendors spent,
 The other, in a patriarch's lonely tent.

1. Who did in ancient times that city found,
 In Jonah's history afterwards renowned?
2. Who with Agrippa, to the judgment hall,
 Came with great pomp, to hear the case of Paul?
3. Who thought to slay king David in the fight,
 But fell himself before Abishai's might?
4. Whose kindness to a prophet of the Lord,
 Met with a precious unforeseen reward?
5. Who did the Lord his vision bid to write,
 And make it plain that all might read aright?
6. Who did a queen, although his near of kin,
 Deprive of office for her grievous sin?
7. Who viewed his young opponent with disdain,
 Yet by that stripling's hand was quickly slain?

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 61.

The letters constituting the following words, rearranged, will form the name of a murderer who fled from this country:—

1. The father of the inventor of organs and harps.
2. An organ built near Jordan.
3. A man one of whose kindred rebuked a good man.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 62.

The hiding-place of Jonathan and Ahimaaz.

The prophet who was a herdman of Tekoah.

Cain's grandson.

The judge who succeeded Abimelech.

The prophet who foretold the destruction of Edom.

Hezekiah's name for the brazen serpent.

The place where Samson slew the lion.

Nehemiah's father.

Aaron's wife.

The city whence Sennacherib's ambassadors came.

The man of whom St. Paul says, "He was not ashamed of my chain."

The king of Syria who fought with Ahaz.

The tribe omitted when the rest are enumerated in the Book of Revelation.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 63.

My first is oft prefixed to words,

And signifies "beneath,"

My second's blessing is the Lord's,

To save from sin and death;

And planted oft on heathen soil,

It well repays the gracious toil.

When patient Job prepared his soul

To bow beneath the rod,

Without reserve he gave my whole

To meet the will of God.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 64.

To solve the following questions,
Write numbers one to eleven in rote ; then bring
The well-spent names of person, place, or thing,
That answer these suggestions :—

Nos. 1, 4, 5, 2, 8, 9—

Range under these six letters
The name of one found sitting next a throne,
And riding second to the king alone ;
His feet once galled with fetters.

Nos. 2, 8, 9, 7, 6—

Make that capacious measure,
Viewed by the prophet as a woman's seat,
Winged with the wind to her secure retreat.
The land of power and pleasure.

Nos. 3, 4, 5, 9, 2, 10—

He last the sceptre wielded,
Ere Israel's throne was humbled to the dust ;
A king who vainly did in Egypt trust,
And to Assyria yielded.

Nos. 4, 5, 3, 2, 7—

Through Canaan's utmost borders,
Twelve chieftains journeyed to search out the land ;
One name appears that did augmented stand
Thenceforth, by Moses' orders.

Nos. 5, 9, 10, 8, 6, 7, 11—

These show that prophet's father,
Who twice received from Israel's mighty seer
His fallen mantle. This will soon appear,
When you these letters gather.

Nos. 6, 2, 11, 3—

Show from what race descended
The man who owned and sold a field and cave,
Where six illustrious strangers found a grave—
By these four letters blended.

Nos. 7, 5, 10, 8, 9—

'Tis he, with song poetic,
First of three seers, as ordered by the king ;
And still his twelve sweet canticles we sing,
In psalmody prophetic.

Nos. 8, 7, 5, 2., 10, 9, and 8, 6, 7, 5, 2, 10, 9—

From Babylon returning,
Lo ! twice recounted the Nethinims' bands ;
What name, next Uzza, of these fathers' stands,
Its varied form discerning ?

Nos. 9, 4, 5, 7, 6—

The bounds of Asher tracing,
From Helkath to the sea-board, I require
The name next following the strong city Tyre —
These numbers rightly placing.

Nos. 10, 1, 7, 9—

From Seir the Horite springing,
Behold the name of Zibeon's elder son,
Whose brother's daughter Jacob's brother won—
These several numbers bringing.

Nos. 11, 4, 10, 3—

In Kohath's line ascending
Count back from Samuel, of those sons of song
Whom David set to lead the choral throng ;
In Eliel's father ending.

Behold his name completed.
Who reigned in Ahab's days on David's throne ;
By whom his righteous father's ways were shown,
And Judah's foes defeated.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 65.

Swift of foot and fearless,
 Strong and terrible in fight,
 Great of heart and careless
 Of the glancing weapons bright ;
 Yet a thing forbidden
 To be kept or ridden,
 By the people of the Lord,
 When the tribes of Israel warred.

Mean, debased, and sordid,
 Sprung from a corrupted line ;
 Yet his name recorded,
 Shows an origin divine.
 Fragile now, and tender,
 Now in power and splendor,
 'Tis a paradox involved,
 'Tis a riddle unresolved.

By the first and second
 Must the whole be brought to light ;
 Strong in valor reckoned,
 Yet not seldom put to flight :
 Hark ! the battle rages—
 Host with host engages !
 Yet the strong, the swift may yield,
 And the weak may win the field.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 66.

Who prayed for death in dark despair ?
 To what did Christ himself compare ?
 What queen was fairest of the fair ?
 Now either way the initials place,
 And still the selfsame name they give
 Of one who sunk in deep disgrace,
 Did yet a glorious hope receive.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 67.

First name a chief, the bitter foe
 Of Judah's Lord, and Judah's land.
 A river next, whose waters flow,
 By old Damascus' heathen strand.
 What did the Lord of Hosts o'erthrow,
 In pity to his chosen band?
 What word is oft-times used to show
 The wonders of his mighty hand?
 Next mark the name first borne in youth,
 By one, who in the cause of truth,
 With manly courage risked his life,
 To still the murmuring people's strife.
 And, last, his father's name set down,
 Known only by that son's renown;
 The initials form a monarch's name,
 Who, once a mighty empire swayed;
 Yet are his exploits lost to fame,
 And all his glory sunk in shade.
 His captain's name the finals tell.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 68.

The letters in the answers to the following will, if rightly placed, form the name of a learned teacher:—

1. One of the encampments of the Israelites where there were wells of water.
2. A man who conspired against Abimelech, and was thrust out from the city where he had dwelt.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 69.

Letters taken from the following give the name of a place where a rich and good man, in the time of Christ, dwelt:—

1. A leading man of the tribe of Naphtali, who was to "stand with" Moses.
2. A son of Ishmael.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 70.

Six letters spell the name of one who was early dedicated to God. These six letters are the initials of six proper names which we will describe as follows :—

1. A quiet Prince.
2. An Eastern River.
3. A priest of Baal.
4. A word which sealed the doom of an empire.
5. A mighty man of valor.
6. A Levitical city.

When you have formed these six words, the initials of which spell the name of one who was early dedicated to God. The final letters of these six words, either up or down, spell his mother's name.

Who was the boy? Who was his mother?

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 71.

One of the names of Christ.

The place to which he belonged who, together with Nicodemus, buried Jesus.

A disciple whom Peter raised from the dead.

The father of Achan.

A river by the bank of which Daniel saw a vision.

An inspired herdsman.

A prophetess who endeavored to intimidate Nehemiah when engaged in rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem.

One who stirred up a revolt against Paul at Ephesus.

One who for his godly zeal had an everlasting priesthood conferred on him and his posterity.

A king of Syria who drove the Jews from Elath.

One of whom it was proverbially said in old times, they shall surely ask counsel at him and so end the matter.

That which is good for a man to bear in his youth.

The initials of the preceding words form a solemn admonition by our Saviour.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 72.

What woman armies to the battle led ?
 In troubled times who gave God's prophet bread ?
 Who told a lie, to please his thirst for gain ?
 Whose house the ho'y ark of God received ?
 Who early of her husband was bereaved ?
 Who felt a loving father's keenest pain ?

In these initia' letters find,
 A precept all our deeds to guide,
 That bids us think of others weal,
 And cast all thoughts of self aside.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 73.

1. A name, the symbol of mere worldly gain ;
 To love it and love God—the attempt is vain.
2. A vale Tobiah sought, with feigned alarm,
 To entrap there Nehemiah to his harm.
3. A plain where building projects of proud aim,
 By heaven confounded, soon was brought to shame.
4. A word of Christ, which ears fast chained unbound.
5. For incense, jewels, gold, a land renowned.

Write down each name of subject next,
And prove it from the sacred text.

The first and final letters scanned,
Behold! two names conjunctive stand.

One was a Jewess, one her lord,
Who heard a Roman prisoner's word.

He said, though trembling, "Go thy way;
I'll hear thee more another day."

Like him, alas ! too many hear,
But their obedient faith defer.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 105.

When Ruth had gleaned the field all day,
She threshed and bore my first away
To where the good Naomi dwelt,
And eased the care the master felt.

When Barek fought and Sisera fled,
My second came into his head;
By Jael forcibly suggested,
And Deborah's song the deed attested.

When Paul was in Damascus kept,
My third conveyed him while they slept,
That so he might escape their hand,
And safely reach his fatherland,

Divide in halves these terms rehearsed,
And of their sections take the first;
Then with due care combine the same,
And you shall find a good man's name.

With Paul at Lystra see him now—
They hail him Jupiter ! and bow ;
But soon they drive, with changed opinion,
The apostles forth from their dominion.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 106.

Go to the land of Uz ; that tried one see ;
Ask for his second daughter—lo ! 'tis she.

Go to that mighty man, the third of three ;
Ask for the Hararite—behold ! 'tis he.

Go to Shusham, a proud man's sons there be;
Ask for the second, and behold! 'tis he.

Go to your tent; the childless patriarch see;
Ask for his steward, and behold! 'tis he.

Go to Jerusalem; David's children see;
Ask for Bathshua's eldest—lo! 'tis he.

Go down where Moses and his people be;
Ask for the son of Raguel—lo! 'tis he.

The initials down, the finals upward trace,
And lo! the scene of Israel's dire disgrace.

God said, "Go up, possess the land!"
But they drew back from his command.

There they rebelled. Through unbelief they fell.
If we their said example shun, 'tis well;

We too are called a rest to win,
But only faith shall enter in.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 108.

Three prophets' names suggest,
Whose minor rank their words attest,
With brevity expressed.

The first his vision told
Of Nineveh, renowned of old,
To wrath and vengeance sold.

With long foretokened gloom,
The second published Esau's doom,
Whom Joseph should consume.

In Jotham's days the third,
To Salem brought Jehovah's word,
And all Samaria heard.

Divide each several name,
And the first syllables proclaim,
A widowed matron's fame.

From Bethlehem's fertile plain,
She did a pilgrim's toil sustain,
Then flourished there again.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 135.

Oh listen ! listen to those pleading tones :
 Two sorrowing mothers mourn their little ones
 Yet let us check the sympathetic sigh,
 Their errand glorious, and their mission high ;
 Unerring wisdom marks the way they take,
 And joy and praise in thousand hearts awake.
 They die ; but at their death a nation lives,
 And peace and plenty the great Giver gives.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 136.

Not within and not without ,
 Yet it could content
 One who sought to know about
 News to sinners sent.

Ah, beware ! The place is not
 A proper seat for all.
 Few are safe in such a spot ;
 One, alas ! did fall.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 137.

Oh skilful the workers, oh mournful the day,
 When within its recesses they hid him away,
 So gracious, so noble, the pride of the State,
 Their friend and their patron, the good and the great.

Oh wondrous the moment when forth from the land
They bore it, fulfilling the solemn command ;
Still truly remembering the vows of the past,
And keeping the long-cherished promise at last.

Oh great the rejoicing when, after long years,
Its treasure unfolded still changeless appears ;
Unfolded awhile, then for ever concealed
Till the day when the secrets of all are revealed.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 138.

It is a word I love to hear,
Though not of English birth :
A gentle word that fitly falls
From hapless sons of earth—
From patient souls that seek and love
The help which cometh from above.

No plainer words, no simpler words,
To baby lips belong ;
For turn this way, or turn it that.
You cannot turn it wrong ;
And yet the holiest lips were heard
To utter first this simple word ;

Two letters make this simple word ;
But oh ! how much they mean ;
They touch our earth, they soar to heaven,
They span the gulf between ;
And when its mission here is o'er,
This word shall reach the further shore.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 139.

1. "A son and shield," is God the Lord, the sons of Korah chanted,
And they record his two great gifts, to all the upright granted ;
What these shall be you soon may see by noting this suggestion :—

First to obtain an answer plain to every following question .

I.

1. What Christian virtue stands the sixth in one of Peter's letters?
2. And who are they that scarcely saved one till to mercy debtors?

resting?
4. And how does John describe the same God's faithfulness
attesting?
5. And what God's sovereign purpose is that full determination?

That make the greater serve the less and bring the Saint salvation?

The initials show—in one short row, for all the answers quoted—

The eternal source and steadfast course of man's redemption noted.

II.

1. Then what is godliness combined with thankful moderation ?
2. And what surpasses hope and faith in absolute duration ?
3. What name of Jesus tells the end of earth's completed story ?
4. Tell the reward of troubled Saints when Christ appears in glory ?
5. And what are all the promises to each believer spoken
6. When Christ himself is made of these the earnest and the token ?

The initials quote and these denote the Saints' full joy and blessings ;
 When Christ appears, their toils and tears in endless life re-dressing.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 140.

The man from whose instruction St. Luke wrote.
 The place where Miriam was smitten with leprosy.
 The word that signifies, "be opened."
 A mighty hunter before the Lord.
 The man that went out to meditate at Eventide.
 Moses' eldest son.
 The third river of the Garden of Eden.
 The city where St. Paul left his cloak.
 The place where Nathanael came.
 The man who helped Ahab to seek pasture for his cattle.
 Hezekiah's successor.
 The place near Salem where John baptized.
 The fellow-laborer to whom St. Paul said, "Let no man despise thy youth."
 The father of Lot.
 The initials suggest a solemn warning.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA No. 141.

1. What Priest his son-in-law did keep,
 To watch and tend his fleecy sheep ?
2. Who for a relatives resort,
 Prepared the temple's sacred court ?
3. What servant did a King endow,
 With riches his esteem to show ?
4. First named of two who prophesied,
 While Joshua to prevent them tried ?
5. What name a water-fount received
 When an angel human grief revealed ?
6. Who gladdened with a child a wife,
 And raised that child, when dead, to life ?

7. Who had a son who God did save,
 While many found a watery grave?
 Once in Samaria's lovely land,
 In peace and quietude they trod
 And dwelt a holy prophet band,
 The servants of the living God.
 But soon the Queen resolved in hate,
 Nor headed all their deep distress,
 These prophets to exterminate,
 Unmindful of their faithfulness.
 But ere the wicked earthborn plan
 Its author satisfaction gave,
 The Lord designed a godly man
 His persecuted ones should save.
- The King's chief governor kindly led,
 And hid them in a hollow rock,
 And there with bread and water fed
 The Lord's preserved and faithful flock.
 In initials you may read
 The queens unhallowed name ;
 The finals show the men whose deed
 Will live in long recorded fame.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 142.

1. Whose house gave refuge to a sacred thing,
 While Israel mourned and never murmured for a king?
2. There with the poor, the leprous, and the vile,
 Was found our Lord's last earthly domicile.
3. This they broke up, to let the sick man through,
 And try what he, the sinners friend could do.
4. Seven Persian princes—this the third—had place
 Next to the monarch, and beheld his face.
5. Daughter of Israel, weep! thy Priests are slain
 He and his brother love the ark in vain!

6. Say, on what mount did all mankind combine
In solemn sacrifice and songs divine?
7. There on that hill-top, see the patriarch stand ;
The victim bound by his obedient hand.

First the initials then the finals quote,
And therein two acrostics will denote
Who found imputed righteousness, and how
Then go and follow his example now.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 143.

1. From Paul they parted, ere their work was done ;
But mark the cause of strife was MARY'S SON.
2. Yes, but persuasion had the bait so gilded,
That, just for once she looked admired and yielded.
3. Of Judah's tribe Ahumai's brother see,
But once inscribed in Shabals pedigree.
4. Some of her house conveyed to Paul sad tidings,
Of the Corinthian's schisms and party tidings.
5. Thy daughter love him whom his servants slew
But quickly was the treasure punished too.
6. What single sign is that, both ways the same
What ofttimes stand for God's most glorious name.

The initials down, the finals up,
Reveal a Name
Of wondrous fame,
Of one who hold the Priestly cup
And breaks the bread and pours the wine.
And gives the benison divine
And lo! a royal diadem
Encircles now
His lofty brow
With glory from the God of Shem.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 144.

- The city in the siege of which Uriah the Hittite was killed?
 The place where Baal-zebub was worshipped?
 The metropolis of Ahab?
 The city built by Solomon in the wilderness?
 The Father of twelve princes?
 The invader from whom Saul delivered Jabesh Gilead?
 The place to which Jonah thought to flee?
 The rebuilder of Jericho?
 The man who rescued Jeremiah from the dungeon?
 The author of the last chapter of Proverbs?
 The mountain ascended by David when he fled from Absalom?
 The mother of Armoni and Mephibosheth?
 The birth place of Abraham's steward?
 The initials will give a receipt of Consolation.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 145.

1. 'Tis the loving friend of David who prepared,
 Stone and timber for the temple ready squared.
2. 'Tis the brother of a Priest, whose hasty touch,
 Cost him his life, and grieved King David much.
3. 'Tis the King of Eglon hiding in a cave,
 Where he quickly found his ruin and his grave.
4. 'Tis his threshing floor that once became the scene,
 Of such mourning as in Canaan had not been.
5. 'Tis she that with the Mary's stood amazed,
 When into the empty sepulchre they gazed.
6. 'Tis Eliakim's grandson in the line
 Of a King whose last descendants were divine.
7. 'Tis the fifth of those great chamberlains that stood,
 To fulfil what e'er the Persian King thought good.
8. 'Tis the chamberlain who did the maidens bring,
 In their order, to the presence of the king.

When you these correctly frame,
 The initials spell her name,
 Whose rare beauty won her fame,
 Which her station could not claim.
 What though Persia's royal dame
 Was in anger put to shame;
 And in virtue of the same,
 She a mighty queen became.

And her cousin's name as well,
 Who did near the palace dwell,
 Then the final letters spell
 And the royal records tell,
 How he did the treason quell;
 And the changes that befell
 When his adversary fell,
 Who with pride and wrath did swell.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 146.

1. Four giant chiefs whom David's warriors slew,
 Dwelt in one city bring its name to view.
2. Last of eight officers in David's court,
 One the chief ruler stood—his name report.
3. Second of twelve who furnished a king's table,
 Tell me his father's name if thou art able.
4. When three old sages failed to answer one,
 This youth adventured, and the task was done.
5. An oak, a wine press, and an angel's visit,
 An altar, and a grave—behold! where is it?
6. Think of a Levite chief consumed by fire—
 Of his next Brother's name I half require.

The initials downward, make his well known name.
 Whose steadfast faith and dauntless courage claim
 To be by all remembered evermore :
 His sword Israel put mighty foes to shame,
 His victories still Jehovah's power proclaim,
 Who still defend his people as of yore ;
 The finals, upwards, meant the humble fame
 Of one the faithful servant of the same—
 Who did, with him, the hostile camp explore.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 147.

My first descends
 From Heaven, and tends
 To make the gems of nature grow ;
 My second bends
 And swiftly sends
 Destruction to a distant foe ;
 My whole attends
 Where wrath impends
 God's covenant of peace to show ;
 And beauty blends,
 And witness lends
 Of God's good-will to all below.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 148.

My first is luscious, sweet, and round,
 And pleasant to the taste is found ;
 My second in the forest grows,
 And bears an acorn or a rose ;
 My whole may in a vineyard stand,
 And well repay the planter's hand,
 Or else seem flourishing and fair,
 And yet stand profitless and bare,
 And only mock t' e masters care.

So once when Jesus sought my first,
 Sought vainly—he my second cursed ;
 And so my whole, with swift decay,
 Stood withered on that solemn day,
 That all might fear that passed that way.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 149.

- 1 My name a glowing gem of price ;
  - 2 A “ nothing ” groved by man’s device !
  - 3 What may not pass a needles eye ;
  - 4 And what we call the slowy sky ;
  - 5 What all thing have when gone and part !
  - 6 And a rich odorous ointment last.
- The initial letters joined will tell.
 What men so often love too well,
 Yet lead down multitudes to hell.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 150.

1. A place where the ark of God rested.
2. The Babylonian name of one of the months of the year,
- 3 A king one of whose governors wished to apprehend Paul,
 but failed to do so.

The initials both in order and reversed form the name of one who obeyed God, and caused others to do right. The third letters, with orders reversed, the name of one who disobeyed God and caused others to do wrong.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 151.

1. Think of a precious sense in men ?
2. Its duplex organs think of them ?
3. What most befits the weary think ?
4. And into what the wicked sink ?

5. Think what will melt with fervent heat?
6. What pierced the Saviour's hands and feet?
7. What were his fellow sufferers tell?
And mark the initial letters well.
These show who told the earliest lie,
And made our tempted parents die.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 152.

First find these places all in Canaan's border,
Among their names are letters in due order,
(In line will serve, in column would be better.)
Then take from every name a single letter ;
Select the letters nearest to the middle
And you shall find a key to solve my riddle.

- Wonders of power and pity
Were oft within her busy streets displayed ;
1. And yet we hear the Saviour's voice upbraid
This unrepenting city.

- There twice the battle raged
Against the living God and Israel ;
2. And there two champion Giants fell,
Whom David's chiefs engaged.

- Though obscure and lowly,—
The least of cities—yet must One have birth,
3. Within her walls the ruler of the earth,
The faithful and the holy !

- 'Twas the Priests gave aid
To David, fleeing from the face of Saul,
4. Who in his anger sought to slay them all,
In their kind deed betrayed.

- The wail of woe and sadness !
Rings through her gates and echoes o'er the plains !
5. But lo ! the lost ones shall return again
And change her grief to gladness !

- On Arnon's brink arose
 This ancient city; but the mighty hand
 6. Of Israel's leader seized on Canaan's land,
 And dispossessed their foes.

- 'Twas there they kept the wedding,
 When Sampson's Bride the riddle did disclose,
 7. But to bestow the prize he stopped his foes,
 Their blood in vengeance shedding.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 153.

1. A city noted for wonderful preservation of life.
2. One whom God's spirit made to prophesy, and whom, a young man afterwards a pious ruler wished to be prevented from prophesying.
3. A mighty king who lost his kingdom for a time but was afterwards restored to it.
4. A king's mother who was carried captive.
5. A father whose three children were all famous amongst the children of Israel.
6. A city against which Christ promised woe for its impenitence.
6. A chamberlain of a king ruling from India to Ethiopia.
8. A hiding place of David.
9. A city where a Christian sought and found Paul.
10. A child of promise.
11. One of the idols worshipped by the children of Israel.

The initials form the name of a king that was slain; the finals that of one of his sons, who assisted in slaying him.

SCRIPTURE ENIGMA, No. 154.

1. The son of Zuph, an Ephrathite in the fourth generation;
 The ancestor of one who gave two kings to Israel's nation.

2. The King of Zabath went to war with chariots and with horses ;
But David smote and spoiled him and scattered all his forces.
3. The aged priest of Israel grieved by his son's backslidings,
Fell down at last and perished, overwhelmed with evil-tidings.
4. There, when God sent his Angels, to tell them of their failing ;
All Israel wept and called it the place of tears and wailings.
5. The last of five great Princes who in Midian's country reigned,
Whom Moses smote, and Reuben their fruitful land obtained.
6. The Ezrahite prophetic, who sang Jehovah's mercies,
To David and his kingdom, in joyful, mournful verses.
7. The father of the officer who David made recorder,
Then David judged the people to Canaan's farthest border.
8. The Horonite that eavied the cities renovation,
What time King Artaxerxes gave the Jews their restoration.
9. The place where they complained for Egypt's pleasures yearning,
But Israel's God was angry, and punished them with burning.
10. The second son of Jacob's heirs, from his chief place rejected,
Then to his birthright portion a younger was elected.
11. The city that was captured, and for their dwelling claimed it,
Who sprang from Bilhah's elder son, and after him they named it.

12. The lofty place in Canaan where Israel's bounds extended,
From the salt sea and onward its sunny side ascended.
13. The king who heard when David subdued a hostile nation,
And sent his son to bless him, with gifts and salutation.
14. The keeper of the household, beneath his royal master,
Then Judah's land was saved by Assyria's great disaster.

If the first and final letters from all these names be quoted,

You will find in two acrostics two wondrous things denoted.

The one was worn by Aaron four rows of jewels showing,
The other shone around it, with heavenly lustre glowing,
Oft as the priest was standing in service mediatorial,
The one he wore, the other bore his peoples bright memorial ;

This well adorned his person upon his robes of glory,
That told in signs mysterious some glad or gracious story,
Some message from Jehovah, their God and King and Saviour,

To teach them his good precepts, and their behaviour,
And our High Priest in heaven, his robes of glory wearing
From richer gems reflected, a bright radiance bearing,
Still lives to make memorial of all for whom he suffered,
And bears their names upon him for whom his blood was offered,

And those that trust his mercy nought from his love shall sever,

He will guide them with his counsel, and lift them up for ever.

SCRIPTURE ANAGRAM, No. 155.

Six letters in one name appear,
As in the sequel will be clear!

And numbered thus in order due,
May be discovered by this clue :—
You find in six, five, one, two, three,
One hung on his own gallows-tree.

Three, four, five, six, his name compose,
From whom man's second lineage flows.

In six, two, one, his son you find,
The least beloved of all his kind.
In one, two, three, you clearly trace,
The name of our degenerate race.

From one, two, four, and three, you ken,
Of Judah's twos the first of ten.
Three, two, five, one, of Judah's tribes
The least of Caleb's sons describe.

Two old Egyptian cities see,—
This in three, four, and that four, three.
With all the six, describe at length,
The Father of the man of strength.

SCRIPTURE ANAGRAM, No. 156.

My fourteen letters will a name unfold,
In vision imagined by a head of gold.
You must not guess the characters to tell,
But in the sacred pages search and spell.
First find the following names, the initials take,
And these combined the monarch's title make.

1. Find numbers one, seven, eight, thirteen and three,
And one who died for sacrilege you see.

2. Find ten, twelve, fourteen, seven,—a scribe is found
Who raised a fallen city from the ground.
3. Three, thirteen, fourteen, four, five, six, denote,
A scribe who twice the prophets warning wrote.
4. Four, twelve, eleven, seven, and six, and such
His name who died for one unlawful touch.
6. Five, sixteen, fourteen, four, and three, will bring,
A wondrous creature with an outspread wing.
6. Find six, ten, three, two, fourteen, you shall view
A man whose wife the weary Sisera slew.
7. Find seven, three, nine, ten, fourteen, and recall
The great war captain of the house of Saul.
8. Eight, four, fourteen, and seven,—its plain extends
Where nations to a golden image bend.
9. One, ten, seven, six, reveal, the utmost bound,
The eastern limit of Zebulun's ground.
10. Ten, eight, two, nine,—behold a garden fair!
And lo! a matchless couple dwelling there.
11. Eleven, two, fourteen, ten, and eight,—appears,
Israel's last journey in the forty years.
12. Twelve, thirteen, three, four, eight,—you apprehend
The son of Nathan, and a wise king's friend.
13. Find thirteen, twelve, eleven, seven, six, and tell
The utmost border where the Avims dwell.
14. Fourteen, two, four,—behold the patriarch's name,
The son of Peleg, in the line of Shem.

CURIOUS FACTS ABOUT THE BIBLE.

These curious facts about the Bible were ascertained, it is stated, by a convict sentenced to a long term of solitary confinement: The Bible contains 3,586,489 letters, 773,692 words, 31,173 verses, 1,189 chapters, and 66 books. The word and occurs 46,277 times. The word Lord occurs 1,855 times. The word reverend occurs but once, which is in the 9th verse of the 11th Psalm. The middle verse is the 8th verse of the 118th Psalm. The 21st verse of the 7th chapter of Ezra contains all the letters of the alphabet except the letter J. The finest chapter to read is the 26th chapter of the Acts of the Apostles. The 19th chapter of 2 Kings and the 37th chapter of Isaiah are alike. The longest verse is the 9th verse of the 8th chapter of Esther. The shortest verse is the 35th of the 11th chapter of St. John. The 8th, 15th, 21st, and 31st verses of the 107th Psalm are alike. Each verse of the 136th Psalm ends alike. There are no words or names of more than six syllables.

CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE OF THE PATRIARCHS, FROM ADAM TO MOSES, 2500 YEARS.

This table exhibits the years of the birth and death of the patriarchs; the comparative length of their lives; who of them were alive at the same period; and the rapid decrease in the length of life after the deluge. Thus, Lamech the father of Noah was born A. M. 874, and died A. M. 1651; he was contemporary with Adam 56 years, and he died but five years before the flood. Shem was born nearly 100 years before the flood, and lived many years after both Abraham and Isaac were born.

From J. T. HEADLEY'S New Illustrated Biblical Work, written in the author's happiest style, and surpassing his former works that have sold by the hundred thousand, with Steel Engravings from designs by our artist, who has spent three years in Bible lands.

Rev. E. J. GOODSPEED, D.D., Chicago, says:

"Our old favorite, who wrote so graphically of the Sacred Mountains, has given us another volume of a similar character. His gorgeousness of imagery revels and is at home among the mighty men and sublime landscapes of the ancient past. A soberer pen would fail to reproduce the men and their surroundings in just proportions and coloring. We welcome, therefore, and heartily commend this noble volume, with its fresh illustrations, clear type, and handsome binding, hoping that our dear old Bible, ever new, because so human and yet Divine, and hence adapted to our profoundest necessities, may become yet more thoroughly understood and universally read."

"After reading these biographical commentaries, for such they are, it is with a fresh interest that the Bible itself is opened."—Rev. HENRY WARD BEECHER, Editor of Christian Union.

---

"A very valuable work. I commend it cordially."—Bishop E. S. JAMES, New York.

SMITH'S
DICTIONARY of the BIBLE
COMPRISING ITS ANTIQUITIES, BIOGRAPHY, GEOGRAPHY, and NATURAL HISTORY.

Edited by WILLIAM SMITH, LL.D.,
Classical Examiner in the Univ. of London, etc.

A few years since, Dr. William Smith, of the University of London, and the most eminent Lexicographer in the world, associated with himself over seventy distinguished Divines and Authors of both Europe and this country, in the great task of preparing a comprehensive Dictionary of the Bible. The result of these labors has at last appeared in three large and very costly volumes, and is a wonderful monument of learning. An abridgment for popular use made by Dr. Smith himself, is offered in this volume. It is a condensation of thousands of volumes of essays, histories, travels, and commentaries, for the elucidation and illustration of the Bible.

The present work contains every name in the Bible respecting which anything can be said. It embraces the results of Historic Research, Antiquarian Investigation, the study of Languages and Dialects, and the discoveries of the modern travellers and explorers in the Holy Land.

It contains nearly 800 finely printed double-columned Octavo Pages, including over One Hundred and Twenty-five Engravings of Scenes, Ancient Cities, and Memorable Places of the Holy Land, descriptive Figures and valuable Maps.

The BRIGHT SIDE of NEW YORK.

An Illustrated Library of Information pertaining to the Great Metropolis.

The New York Correspondent of The Watchman and Reflector (Boston) says:

"It has been compiled with laborious fidelity and praiseworthy impartiality by Rev. J. F. Richmond, one of the toiling city missionaries, and having bought and honestly paid for it, I have no motive to eulogize it from any mercenary consideration. Nor does private friendship sway me, for I have not the slightest acquaintance with either compiler or publisher. But just because I find it as the title-page asserts 'A Library of Information,' illustrated with more than 200 engravings, and covering in some sense the history of the city from its foundation, as well as its present state. Indeed, in a comprehensive and summary manner about every thing which one could desire in this epitomized way is here presented in a generally reliable and distinct manner, so as to be easily available as a hand-book for ready reference. What American can contemplate this great city without admiration!"

THE LOST CAUSE,

A STANDARD

Southern History of the Late War.

By EDWARD A. POLLARD, of Virginia.

Comprising a full and authentic account of the Rise and Progress of the late Southern Confederacy; the Campaigns, Battles, Incidents, and Adventures of the most gigantic struggle of the world's history.

In one Royal Octavo Volume of 762 Pages and 24 Steel Portraits.

The history of the vanquished has been too often written by the pen of the victor, and that justice might be rendered the fallen, the author has attempted the vindication of his countrymen in a history which shall challenge the criticism of the intelligent, and invite the attention of all honest inquirers.

There are already published no less than twenty-two Histories of the War arranged by Northern writers; and to correctly understand the points at issue during the great struggle, we must have the facts and figures from a Southern Historian; for we can only arrive at the truth by a knowledge of the events as seen by both parties to the struggle.

The New York Home Journal says:—No fair history of this struggle could have been written alone. The history by Mr. Pollard is naturally supplemental to that of Mr. Greeley. In point of execution, "The Lost Cause" is a model of grace, elegance, and beauty of diction. We listen to the beating of the drum, the shriek of the fife, and the thunder-music of cannon, in the serried thread of its sentences.
